OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND CO.

NAPOLEON, O., - NOV. 11, 1886.

The election is over, now for business.

Foraker can now give the convicts a rest.

New York State is Democratic and will remain so.

Now that election is over Judge Johnson has resigned.

The New Jersey Legislature is Democratic by one vote.

Foran, of Cleveland, would make an excellent Governor.

There are 112 surviving soldiers of the war of 1812 in Ohio.

Boston sent nearly $100,000 to Charleston earthquake sufferers.

California has elected a Democratic Governor, by 202 plurality.

Governor Foraker has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation.

Neal Dow fixes 1892 as the year for the Prohibitionists to elect a President.

Those Democrats who worked against the Congressional ticket feel ill at ease. 'Tis always thus.

The election last week places Van Wert county in the Democratic column. Hurrah for Van Wert.

The Cleveland Democrats celebrated their great victory on Saturday night. All honor to the Democrats of Cuyahoga.

A bill has passed the lower house of the Vermont Legislature which allows women who pay taxes to vote. It will pass the Senate.

Hon. James Campbell, Democrat, is elected by 3 majority in the 7th district. This gives the Democrats six Congressmen from Ohio.

Political feeling runs so high in Pennsylvania that women with Republican husbands won't use Democratic newspapers to make bustles.

The Lebanon Patriot is highly tickled over the election of a Democratic Sheriff in Warren county, a Republican stronghold. Congratulations.

The national debt was reduced $12,000,000 during October. This is doing pretty well for an administration which was going to ruin everything.

The Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, in session in New York, has appropriated $503,549 for foreign missions this year, against $440,536 last year.

Mr. Henry Bergh's Humane Society will get the $150,000 willed to it by Miss Weston, of New Haven, Conn., the efforts of her relatives to break the will having come to naught.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll's opinion concerning the defeat of George is that the Republicans missed an opportunity not supporting that candidate, and that a new party has been born.

Pennsylvania Railway company has placed orders for 2,000 additional freight cars. The Baltimore & Ohio has ordered 1,000, and the Pittsburgh & Western 2,000. In all history of railroads, freight has never been so rushing as at the present time.

The Republicans had nothing to do with the election in Delaware. Only two parties were in the field, and Biggs, Democrat, had a majority of 5,000 over Hoffecker, Prohibitionist. It went long before they will drop out of politics altogether as a party.

Abstract of Votes Cast in Henry County at the Election held November 2nd, 1886.

He Who Laughs Last Laughs Best!
The Republicans Crowded Too Soon!

COLORADO.

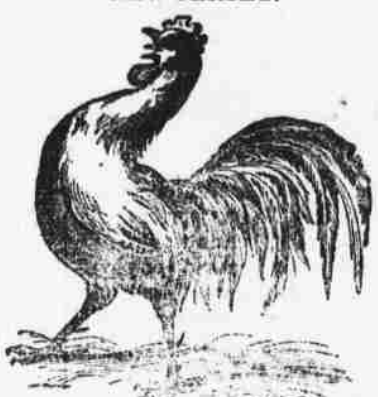

MINNESOTA.

NEW YORK.

NEW JERSEY.

Indiana Legislature, California a Governor, 4 Congressmen and the Legislature, New Jersey Legislature, Three Democratic Senators Gained, Republican Majority reduced in Ohio to Paltry Numbers, Congress still Democratic, Great Gains Throughout the Nation. Democrats are Satisfied, they Don't Want the Earth.

Hancock county has elected the entire Democratic ticket by increased majorities. Here's to you, Bro. Gleason.

The Democratic party has Congressmen from thirty-three of the thirty-eight States and the Republicans from twenty-eight.

The President on Friday appointed George W. Baxter, of Cheyenne, W. T., to be Governor of Wyoming Territory, vice Francis E. Warren suspended.

The Republican "gains" in Ohio consist of the Congressmen stolen by a Mexicanized Legislature, and no more. On the popular vote the party has lost heavily.—Enquirer.

The Democrats have carried Minnesota. Now we would just like to know what advantage the Republicans have gained anyway at the late election. They are howling over naught.

The Walnut Street House of Cincinnati has failed. Col. Blount, one of the proprietors, is an old Ohio hotel man, having at one time conducted the United States and American Hotels at Columbus.

Mr. Morrison, who was defeated for re-election to Congress, is talked of as a probable successor to S. S. Cox as Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary to Turkey. Mr. Cox is elected to Congress.

The Democrats of Fulton county succeeded in electing their candidates for Auditor, Sheriff and Commissioner last week. Pretty good for a county which is generally good for one thousand Republican majority. When thieves and rascals fall out honest men get their dues.

Assistant General Passenger Agent J. G. Pangborn, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, has resigned to accept a position with the C. A. Vogeler Co., of Baltimore, one of the largest patent medicine houses in the country. He will have charge of the advertising department.

The rascal Bob Kennedy only ran 3,600 behind his ticket. A few more hundred votes against him and he would have been defeated in a district which is good for 4,000 Republican majority. Had he lived in a close district he would have been snowed under so deep that he would have been heard of no more.

Under President Cleveland's administration the government credit has been restored, confidence in public affairs has been established, business is reviving, laborers are finding employment because mines, mills and factories that were idle for months and years are being started up, money is getting plentiful and times easier. All this has been accomplished within eighteen months by a Democratic administration aided by a Democratic House of Representatives.

The coal syndicate in the Lehigh Valley region advanced the price of coal twenty-five per cent. and then, as an exhibition of unexpected generosity, increased the pay of their miners two per cent. leaving themselves a net increase of profit of twenty-three per cent. It is such things as this that render laboring men desperate and makes Socialists and Anarchists of the working classes.

We have received several numbers of the New South, an artistic and beautiful monthly published at Birmingham, Ala. The magazine is devoted to the material interests of the South, and especially those of the place from which it is published—Birmingham. This city has had a marvelous growth, from a town of 4,500 inhabitants in 1880 it has sprung into a city of over 21,000 in 1885, a growth unparalleled in the history of the South.

General John M. Corse, who has been appointed Postmaster at Boston, by President Cleveland, is the man who at the Altoona Pass, when hard pressed by Confederates, replied to Sherman's query as to whether he could hold the place until reinforcements arrived by saying: "Have lost my left ear and part of my jaw, but I can hold the place till hell freezes over!" The General will make a good Postmaster no doubt.

A grand National drill of the National Guards of the different States will be held at Washington, commencing on the 23d of May and closing with a grand parade on Decoration Day. More than $25,000 will be distributed in prizes, ranging from $500 to $5,000 each, besides stands of colors, gold silver and bronze medals, and five individual prizes ranging from $50 to $150. The prizes to be presented by President Cleveland.

The Democratic Northwest, Napoleon, says: Republican "boodle" bought up the riff-raff, and cheap, too.

It seems natural for Democratic organs to charge that a large section of the party is always for sale, "and cheap, too." We don't believe it.—Toledo Commercial.

Our squib does not carry the impression that the persons bought were Democrats, and the conclusion that it does is the Commercial's own. The riff-raff belong to no party, but are to be purchased, and as the Republicans were pretty well supplied with "boodle" they took them in.

The Republicans tried hard to steal the Indiana Legislature.

The Republican majority in this State will run about 11,000. The boiler plate campaign was not very successful after all.—Cin. Telegram.

It is reported that Congressman Carlisle does not wish a third election as Speaker, but prefers that the honor be given to some other one of his colleagues.

The Hancock Courier celebrates its 50th anniversary this week. The Courier has reached a good ripe age, and like old wine, has improved as the years accumulated.—May it live to celebrate its 100th anniversary and see the Democrats in control of the government as now.

The United States spent more money during the last year for salaries of the post-office employees than any other country. A careful estimate of the mail matter of all kinds exchanged throughout the world in one day places the total at 11,640,000, or about five pieces for every human being.

The fiftieth Congress, which will mark the beginning of the centenary of the American Constitution, will find the government of the United States controlled by men with ideas differing little in the abstract from those who were in control at its inception.—There has only been a change of names of parties. Then there were the Federalists and Tories in sympathy with Great Britain and in favor of a strong government; and the Democrats in favor of a government by the people. The successors of the Federalists and Tories exist to-day in the Republican party. The Democratic party of to-day is the same Democratic party of 1787, made firmer and strengthened by time and the principles of Thomas Jefferson. It stands as it has always stood, by the Constitution of the United States, the fundamental law under which the first Congress met nearly a hundred years ago. In the Executive Chair of the nation sits a Democrat, and the House of Representatives of the Fifth Congress, the popular branch of the Government, will have a majority of Democratic members. In the history of the constitutional Government of the United States, covering nearly a century, the Democrats have been in complete or partial control more than three-fourths of the time, and at the end of the century are still largely in control. The country has prospered, the constitution has been preserved. The Democratic party lives and is as vigorous as it was during many dangerous periods of its existence. It has suffered defeats, but undismayed has maintained its organization. It will continue to live. Its mission is not yet accomplished. Because we have suffered a slight reverse in some parts of the country, let no Democrat falter in his fealty to the party. There is no reason for discouragement, but every reason to stand by the party which has stood by the constitution since its adoption. It is the only hope the people have for good government.—Bee.

Now let the Democrats send Joseph E. McDonald to the U. S. Senate from Indiana. Vorhees and McDonald is a team.

Lawler, Democrat, in Ill., whose election was doubtful last week, is found to be elected. Score another one for the Democrats.

Ohio Congressmen Elected.

The Ohio delegation in congress will be as follows:

1. Ben Butterworth, Rep.
2. C. E. Brown, Rep.
3. E. S. Williams, Rep.
4. S. S. Yoder, Dem.

18. W. McKinley, Rep.
19. E. B. Taylor, Rep.
20. G. W. Crouse, Rep.
21. Martin A. Foran, Dem.

Republicans 15, Democrats 6.

A Bargain for Farmers.

We take pleasure in informing our readers that the Ohio Farmer, which has a national reputation as the leading agricultural journal of this country, is offered for the coming year at only one dollar per year. Its very large circulation, now numbering over sixty-five thousand subscribers in every State of the Union, and its liberal advertising patronage, enables its publishers to give to the farmers of this country one of the very best, most enterprising, reliable and instructive agricultural, live stock and family journals of America at the very low price of only one dollar per year. The Ohio Farmer is published at Cleveland, Ohio, is national in everything except in name, is a 16-page—64 column—weekly of fifty-two issues a year, and is acknowledged authority on all agricultural subjects. It is conducted by an able and experienced editorial management that spares no expense or labor to add everything possible to its value. Specimen copy and Premium List will be sent free to all applicants by addressing The Ohio Farmer, Cleveland, O.

Late, in a music hall, after the ballad lady had warbled: "Would I Were a Bird," great excitement was created by a stalwart miner in the audience shouting, "Would I were a gun."
